Hudson Nicholas Suk Memorial Bursary

INTRODUCTION

This bursary has been established in memory of young Hudson Nicholas Suk (February 2019 - July 2020) by his parents, Nicholas Suk (JD ’20) and Maaike Suk. This bursary is possible through the generous donations of their family, friends, and the Common Law Class of 2020.

The bursary was created to help students who have suffered the loss of an immediate family member while in law school. In addition to providing financial support, this bursary is also meant to be a symbol that will give its recipients the confidence and courage to continue law school. It aims to create a sense of community and to impart the knowledge that in their loss, the recipients are not alone.

PURPOSE OF FUND
