NAME OF ENDOWED FUND (OSOTF) [1]

Jay S. Hennick Business and Community Leadership Program

INTRODUCTION
Mr. Jay Hennick is an entrepreneur, business leader, lawyer and philanthropist and is the inspiration behind the University of Ottawa's Jay S. Hennick Business and Community Leadership Program. Mr. Hennick graduated from the University of Ottawa's Faculty of Law in 1981 and quickly established himself as one of Canada's leading corporate and securities lawyers. In 1989 he recognized opportunities in the growing service sector and launched FirstService Corporation. In 1998, Mr. Hennick was awarded Canada's Entrepreneur of the Year Award for creative service integration and was named Canada's CEO of the year in 2001 by Canadian Business Magazine. In addition to his business success, Mr. Hennick is well-known for his generous contributions of time and resources to several worthy causes.

The donor wishes to thank the Government of Ontario for its matching contributions through the Ontario Student Opportunity Trust Fund program as well as the University of Ottawa for its matching contribution.

PURPOSE OF FUND
To provide financial support to JD students at the Common Law Section who have been admitted into the MBA program at the Telfer School of Management as part of the combined JD-MBA program at the University of Ottawa, and whose education would otherwise be compromised.
