INTRODUCTION

The fund was established in 2004 by CIBC under the Campaign for Canada's University. CIBC is one of Canada's largest corporate donors and is committed on helping our country's youth prepare for the future. The prosperity of our country is meaningfully enriched by the contributions of talented students who pursue and complete post-secondary studies. By making an investment that strengthens the University of Ottawa's ability to serve students through scholarships, CIBC is helping Canada grow strong.

The donor organization thanks the Government of Ontario for their matching contributions through its Ontario Student Opportunity Trust Fund program.
