NAME OF ENDOWMENT FUND

Mujawamariya- Bizimana Scholarship

INTRODUCTION
This scholarship fund was established by Professor Donatille Mujawamariya during the 2002 Campus Campaign in honour of her father, Bizimana, who devoted himself to the education of young people in his community in Rwanda. Professor Mujawamariya's goal in establishing the bursary is also to promote and facilitate the integration of visible minorities in the teaching profession in Canada.

The donor thanks the Government of Ontario, which helped create this fund through its generous matching contributions.

PURPOSE OF FUND
To provide financial assistance to students who are members of a racialized community registered in the French Teacher Education program / programme de Formation à l'enseignement at the Faculty of Education, University of Ottawa.
