

Through the International Exchange Program, the University of Ottawa offers many opportunities to study and complete internships abroad. The University awards mobility scholarships each year to help students study or do internships abroad.

Visit the International Office Website to discover all the options available: HERE