NAME OF NON-ENDOWED FUND
KC Consultings Bursary for Black International Students

INTRODUCTION
This bursary was established by Christen Konan, a graduate of the Faculty of Social Sciences class of 2018. Christen Konan was born in the Ivory Coast and came to Canada in 2014 as an international student. Seeing a glaring need for financial education among the general population, she decided to create KC Consultings in 2020. The business's main goal is to help everyone understand personal finance and make better financial decisions.

PURPOSE OF FUND
To support Black international students enrolled in an undergraduate program. The bursary will be given to a Black international student in financial need.
