Brunette Family Scholarship

INTRODUCTION

This scholarship was established in 2004 by brothers Patrick Brunette (B.A. Hons. 2003) and Daniel Brunette. They believe in the need to promote historical knowledge in order to provide a better understanding of current Canadian values and ideas.

The donors acknowledge and thank the Department of History for their matching contribution.

PURPOSE OF FUND

To provide financial assistance to students registered with the Department of History, including the Institute of Canadian and Aboriginal Studies, at the Faculty of Arts of the University of Ottawa.
