NAME OF NON-ENDOWED FUND

Austrian Canadian Council - Gerhard (Garry) Bonner scholarship

INTRODUCTION

The Austrian Canadian Council (ACC) was established with charitable status in 1994. It acts as an umbrella organization for the more than twenty Austrian clubs and societies across Canada, and its mandate is to inform Canadians about Austrian culture and learning, giving them an appreciation of Austrian studies, Austrian graphic and performing arts and Austrian intellectual life and literature. The Council also acts as a sponsor of Austrian scholarly and cultural activities in Canada. Gerhard (Garry) Bonner became the ACC's first President on February 14, 1995.

PURPOSE OF FUND

Provide financial assistance to a student registered in the German Language and Culture program at the Department of Modern Languages and Literatures who demonstrates an interest in Austrian culture.
