YOLANDE LAURENCELLE BURSARY IN RELIGIOUS STUDIES

INTRODUCTION

This bursary was generously created by Dr. Yolande Laurencelle. Holder of a master's degree (1969) and doctorate (1972) in Religious Studies from the University of Ottawa, Dr. Laurencelle worked in the field of education in Canada, the United States and France. She appreciates the great value of education in the development of individuals and the importance of educational support, having received many bursaries herself, as well as over 10 diplomas and certificates, over the course of her life. With this in mind, she established this bursary to help students in the field of Religious Studies succeed in their university studies. Hence, the Yolande Laurencelle Bursary in Religious Studies is a logical extension of her career with young people and of her commitment to them.

PURPOSE OF FUND

Financially support undergraduate students who are registered in the Honours BA or the Major in Religious Studies at the Faculty of Arts of the University of Ottawa.
