Kershaw Group Entrepreneurial Scholarship for Women at the Telfer School

INTRODUCTION

The Kershaw Group Entrepreneurial Scholarship for Women at the Telfer School of Management exemplifies the Kershaw Group Inc's commitment to supporting students in their quest to find their entrepreneurial path, develop new skills, and promote women in an industry where gender barriers still exist and representation of women in C-suite positions remains disproportionate. This scholarship, generously funded by the Kershaw Group Inc., will help to provide support and opportunities for female students with demonstrated involvement in entrepreneurial activities and projects.

Oliver Kershaw joined Avison Young as a Principal in 2016, helping to grow the firm's brand in the greater National Capital Region and, in particular, the Kanata technology sector. Oliver focuses a lot of energies serving Ottawa's growing high-tech office sector representing technology start-ups through to Fortune 500 corporations. Over his commercial real estate career Oliver has been involved in the sale, lease and sublease of over 3,000,000 sf of commercial property within the National Capital Region.

PURPOSE OF FUND

To support a female undergraduate student at the Telfer School of Management who is involved in entrepreneurial activities and projects.
