Ontario Remembrance Scholarship

INTRODUCTION

On January 8, 2020, a Ukrainian airliner crashed near Tehran, Iran. Victims of the crash included 57 Canadians. Among the victims, 34 people were employed at or studying in universities and colleges in Ontario. In remembrance of the victims and to commemorate the talent that has been lost, Ontario will provide publicly-assisted postsecondary institutions with funding for 57 dedicated scholarships. The value of each scholarship is $10,000.

The scholarships are to be awarded on a competitive basis using both academic and financial need criteria.

PURPOSE OF FUND
