Danielle Nacu Scholarship in the Faculty of Social Sciences

INTRODUCTION

Danielle Nacu led a full and inspirational life. While she undertook her second undergraduate degree at University of Ottawa, she worked for Citizenship and Immigration Canada as a Senior Program Advisor and volunteered at local organizations in Ottawa. She also travelled around the world working at foreign embassies. Her dream was to be both an Ambassador and work with the United Nations.

A conscientious environmentalist, Danielle travelled locally by bicycle. Tragically Danielle's life ended prematurely on Tuesday, October 11, 2011 in her 34th year following a bicycle accident. Her family, friends, colleagues and concerned citizens would like to honour Danielle's life by providing other deserving students with financial support to assist them with their studies and ensuring her legacy continues forward through their lives.
