Education Bursary for Students with Disabilities

Purpose of fund

The purpose of this fund is for students with a permanent disability or a permanent medical condition that prevents them from taking more than 12 units per term. Students must contact their learning specialist at Academic Accommodations Service to determine their eligibility.

This scholarship aims to compensate for the difference in cost per unit for a student who is unable to enroll in more than 12 units per term due to their permanent disability or their permanent medical health condition.
