

TERMS OF REFERENCE

Name of Non-Endowed Fund

Emond Harnden LLP/s.r.l Entrance Scholarship

INTRODUCTION

This scholarship was generously created by Emond Harnden LLP, a longstanding supporter and partner of the Common Law Section.

Emond Harnden has been privileged to work with several Indigenous communities on various matters over the years, and the firm has recognized a significant gap in representation of individuals who identify as Indigenous within the field of labour and employment law. Through engagement with the firm's clients and stakeholders, it has become evident that there is a pressing need to support Indigenous law students with an interest in this area of law.

PURPOSE OF FUND

To support an Indigenous student admitted to the JD program at the Faculty of Law, Common Law Section, of the University of Ottawa who demonstrates an interest in pursuing labour and employment law.

SCHOLARSHIP DETAILS

Eligibility criteria

Applicants must meet the following criteria:

- Be a Canadian citizen, a permanent resident, a person with protected or refugee status, or an international student.
- Be admitted as a full-time undergraduate student in the JD program at the Faculty of Law, Common Law Section of the University of Ottawa.
- Provide documented proof of Indigenous identity, in accordance with the requirements of the University of Ottawa Eligibility for Focused Admissions, Scholarships and Bursaries for First Nations, Inuit and Métis People administrative procedure.
- Demonstrate an interest in pursuing labour and employment law.

Award value:	$4,000
Number of awards:	Minimum 1
Award frequency:	Annual
Level or program of study:	JD program
Application contact:	Financial Aid and Awards Service
Application deadline:	May 1

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

Applications must be made through Online Scholarships and Bursaries, which can be accessed through uoZone. They should include the following:

- documented proof of Indigenous identity, in accordance with the requirements of the University of Ottawa Eligibility for Focused Admissions, Scholarships and Bursaries for First Nations, Inuit and Métis People administrative procedure
- a letter (max. 500 words) describing the applicant's interest in pursuing labour and employment law