NAME OF NON-ENDOWED FUND

Paul Fortin Memorial Scholarship

INTRODUCTION

This scholarship was generously created in memory of Paul Fortin, who died December 3, 2020, at the age of 32. A lawyer for the federal Department of Justice, he was a member of the Law Society of Ontario. He was also involved as a volunteer in the francophone community sector, as a member of the Club Richelieu Vanier-Laurier, the Association Champlain Fondateur and the Fondation Richelieu Ottawa. This scholarship was created in partnership with the Fondation franco-ontarienne and the University of Ottawa.

PURPOSE OF FUND

To support undergraduate students enrolled in a French-language undergraduate program in the Civil Law Section (LLL) or the Common Law Section (JD) who demonstrate commitment to the francophone community.
